

MIRAE ASSET DISCOVERY FUNDS

Privacy Policy

Mirae Asset Discovery Funds (the “Trust”) makes the following assurance of your privacy.

The Trust’s Commitment to You

We work hard to respect the privacy of your personal and financial data.

Not Using Your Personal Data for our Financial Gain

The Trust has never sold shareholder information to any other party, nor have we disclosed such data to any other organization, except as permitted by law. We have no plans to do so in the future. We will notify you prior to making any change in this policy. As a shareholder of the Trust, you compensate the Advisor through a management fee; this is how we earn our money for managing yours. We strive to minimize conflicts of interest between the Advisor and the Trust. Our policy of not selling your data is an extension of this practice.

How We Do Use Your Personal and Financial Data

We use your information primarily to complete your investment transactions. We may also use it to communicate with you about other financial products that we offer.

The Information We Collect About You

You typically provide personal information when you complete a Trust account application or when you request a transaction that involves the Trust. This information may include your:

- Name, address and phone numbers
- Social security or taxpayer identification number
- Investment activity

How We Protect Your Personal Information

As emphasized above, we do not sell information about current or former shareholders or their accounts to third parties. We occasionally share such information to the extent permitted by law to complete transactions at your request, or to make you aware of related financial products that we offer. Here are the details:

- To complete certain transactions or account changes that you direct, it may be necessary to provide identifying information to companies, individuals, or groups that are not affiliated with the Trust. For example, if you ask to transfer assets from another financial institution to the Trust, we will need to provide certain information about you to that company to complete the transaction.

- In certain instances, we may contract with non-affiliated companies to perform services for us, such as processing orders for share purchases and redemptions and distribution of shareholder letters. Where necessary, we will disclose information about you to these third parties. In all such cases, we provide the third party with only the information necessary to carry out its assigned responsibilities (in the case of shareholder letters, only your name and address) and only for that purpose. We require these third parties to treat your private information with the same high degree of confidentiality that we do.
- Finally, we will release information about you if you direct us to do so, if we are compelled by law to do so, or in other legally limited circumstances (for example, to protect your account from fraud).

How We Safeguard Your Personal Information

We restrict access to your information to those Trust employees who need to know the information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your personal information.

What You Can Do

For your protection, we recommend that you do not provide your account information, user name, or password to anyone except a Trust employee as appropriate for a transaction or to set up an account. If you become aware of any suspicious activity relating to your account, please contact us immediately.

We'll Keep You Informed

As required by federal law, we will notify shareholders of our privacy policy annually. We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time, but rest assured that if we do change it, we will tell you promptly. You can access our privacy policy from our website.

Summary of Deliverables Prescribed by these Procedures

Item	Responsible Party	Frequency
Privacy policy must be delivered to shareholders annually. Typically, this is done by printing on the inside cover of the prospectus	Advisor	Annually

Adopted: July 2010